Dan McGar

Dan McGar, Assistant Vice President of Organizational Development at SAFE Credit Union, has dedicated his career to helping SAFE reimagine what learning looks like through innovation, collaboration, and a few small rebellions. As an evangelist for employee development, Dan is fiercely committed to serving others, and has been instrumental in creating one of the most next level learning organizations in the region. In 2015, he was pivotal in helping his team receive the Credit Union National Association's (CUNA) Training Professional of the Year Award of Merit. He also received the 2018 CEO Award at SAFE Credit Union for his commitment to employee development. For the past 20 years, Dan has shared his passion for people, leaders, and learning as a keynote speaker at conferences, numerous community organizations, young professional groups and schools. When he's not "nerding" out on people development, Dan spends his free time with his beautiful wife and four young children enjoying the outdoors, traveling and engaging in epic lightsaber battles.

Capturing the Magic of Our 6-Year-Old Selves

"That's so childish!" What some may consider an insult is actually a tool to unlocking innovation and growth, especially in learning. Somewhere on our journey of "adulting" we've lost the imagination, the wonder, the reckless creativity, and passion that came so easy to us as kids. The good news is that this condition doesn't have to be fatal. It's time to unleash the magic by embracing our childhood genius! Through activities, group discussion and a dose of nostalgia, you will have the opportunity to rediscover some "childish" lessons that will take our creativity, development, and approach to our learning experiences to a whole new level! We're not just thinking outside of the box, we're building a rocket ship out of it!" 🚀
